

Song Knowledge Card

Boca 45 Feat Stepchild – Down to Mexico

Artist Background

Scott Hendy, known as Boca 45, is a DJ and producer from Bristol, UK. Signed to Grand Central Records since 2004, he has also released on Ninja Tune, Hombré Recordings, Illicit Records, and more. The name “Boca 45” references the Argentine football club Boca Juniors and the 7" single format (played at 45 RPM). Hendy has recorded with DJ Andy Smith as Dynamo Productions, and with vocalist Gee as Malakai/Malachai. In 2006, he began touring with The Boca45 Experience, featuring Stepchild and Kelvin Swaby.

Track Details

Title	Down to Mexico
Artists	Boca 45 feat. Stepchild
Style	Funk / Breakbeat / Hip Hop
Era	2000s–2010s (exact release date to be confirmed)
Theme	Road trip from the US West Coast to Mexico, escapism, sunshine, and fun.

Full Transcription

[Intro]

Turn this over man. Real quick. We need to break out this play some fire.
Yo, I'm tired of the same old day in, pay in, never no day out, pay out.
B, we need a way out. Time to take it over the border kid.
Time to fly the nest and drive west with buck on 45, taking you down to Mexico. [laughs]

[Verse 1]

Now, when I'm looking out of my window
When I see the rain fall and wind blow
There's a place at least where I know
It's not drizzling or covered in snow
I wanna go to San Francisco
See the girls so tan inside hole
Take it all the way down to San Diego
All the way over now
I got my passport, I got my ticket
I told my boss we can sit
I got my reservations and my fun vacation
And I'm leaving now so all aboard

[Chorus]

Come on, let's take a drive, leave as soon as we arrive
We'll get a caddy down in Cali and we'll drive down to Mexico
We can see the sights, even dazzled by the lights
We'll get a caddy down in Cali and we'll drive down to Mexico

[Interlude Dialogue]

Hey, hang on, screw. You see those girls over there?
Excuse me. You need a lift? Where you going?

[Verse 2]

Now, we're gonna go where sun takes us
Gonna have a blast in Las Vegas
Tell our back home see you later
Follow this road wherever it takes us
We wanna go to San Francisco
See the girls so tan inside
Take it all the way down to San Diego
All the way over now
We got CDs, DVDs, got tapes of Whipperty and the M.Gs
And The Temptations are on the radio station
And we're leaving now so all aboard

[Chorus Repeat]

Come on, let's take a drive...
(Repeated with variations)

[Bridge Dialogue + Verse]

Oh, man I'm feeling a bit peckish you know?
Excuse me mate, you know where I can get some of the wheat?
Si Señor.
Now who was whistling "Rule Britannia!"?
Should have been "Viva España"
'Cause the minute you looked around ya
Don't stop talking and playing the piano
Said I've been through San Francisco...
(continues with playful banter and final choruses)

[Outro]

Something different yeah.
Something different yeah.

Discoverability Notes

- Keywords: Boca 45, Stepchild, Down to Mexico, Bristol DJ, UK funk, road trip song.
- Post to: Discogs, Genius.com (lyrics), MusicBrainz, Wikipedia (if notable release info found).
- Consider tagging with “West Coast road trip” and “Mexico travel song” in uploads.